NO. 111

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The annual election of officers of the Ladies' Social Union of the Presbyterian Church took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the meeting being held at the residence of Mrs. John Pfaff, Sr., Mesdames Pfaff and Harry Brown, being the hostesses of the afternoon.

The business session was opened by the annual reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, after which an auditing committee composed of Mesdames M. D. Miller, E. W. Williams and C. J. Clark, were appointed to audit the books. Following this, Mrs. C. R. Hume took the chair and conducted the election which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Dyke Ballinger, First Vice President, Mrs. Ralph Cleasland, Second Vice President, Mrs. E. B. Widaman, Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Randolph, Asst. Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Evans, Press Reporter, Mrs. Spencer Hilton. The By-laws were amended during the short business session so as to create a new office, that of press reporter.

This organization of Presbyterian ladies is one of the largest and busiest organization in the city, and they enter into every field where work can be made a paying proposition. Their total income for the year just closed was $375.67 which shows that they know how to be wage earners. The list lap in the manse debt $87.25 was wiped off their records yesterday, and the organization begins a new year with a substantial balance to its credit, plus a world of energy.

Delicious refreshments were served by the affable hostesses and several pleasing musical selections rendered during the social hour. Mrs. Spencer Hilton, Press Reporter.

The NEW CREATIONS in Jewelry at Brewer's Jewelry Store will surprise you. Take a look while you are down town.

Cooked Food Sale

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will give a cooked food sale Saturday March 7th at Duncan & Leonhards.

BREWER'S Jewelry is guaranteed Jewelry and is very reasonable in price, too.

ROAD PATRIOTS STILL COME

Every week brings forward new road patriots. Now comes L. V. Coombe and E. S. Parker. Dr. Nance has been sending a man every month, but his name was overlooked. Twenty-five more are cordially invited to join these. Danner Bros. also go on the list having been overlooked.

Secretary Campbell asks all supporters to work with the committee in sending workmen. Only so many men are wanted, and it is desired that supporters register all workmen with the secretary, so as to carry on the work intelligently. Twenty-five more supporters are now wanted. Preparations are being made to attack the roadway going east and west, but no work can be done until the citizens are ready to co-operate. The road north will be put through with the help of the county later in the year.

E. W. Norton Embarks in Wall Paper Business

E. W. Norton has opened an office at the Pioneer Drug Store, phone 221, and is prepared to execute orders for paper hanging on short notice. Mr. Norton is an experienced paper hanger and guarantees his work will be done in a high class, expert manner at reasonable charges.

GENTLE JURY TO BE REPEATED

The Ladies Social Union of the Presbyterian Church will present the Suffragette Farce "The Gentle Jury" at the High School Auditorium this evening, the program to open at 8:15 p.m. This is owing to the unfavorable weather Tuesday evening which caused such a light attendance and the fact that a large number of the patrons of home talents have requested its presentation again.

Preceding the playette an interesting musical and other attractive numbers will be given by local talent. A change in this section of the program has been made so that those who attended Tuesday will be given the opportunity to witness the playette with fresh numbers.

A popular price will be charged 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Tickets are now on sale at O. C. Stephenson's Drug Store. Come and shake off cares and laugh while you may and help an organization that is ever ready to work.

Get the land ready to plant spanish peanuts, oats and sweet clover. J. E. Farrington sells the seed.

Cooked Food Sale

The Young Ladies of the Epworth League of the M.E. church South will give a cooked food sale Saturday March 7th at Eccleston and Coiggnas.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

High School Notes

The Anadarko Boys and Girls Basket Ball teams will meet the Mt. View team in the Anadarko hall Saturday night. The games are expected to be as exciting as any we have had. These will be the last games of the season.

A bunch of boys have started in the evening after school to running cross country. All those expecting to try for any of the track and field events should begin practicing.

Helen Carswell recently of Demming, New Mexico, has enrolled in the High School. Her work will be partly with the Sophomore and partly with the Freshmen class.

The High School was visited last Friday by J. Damsel Brown '13 and Lois Farrington '13. Miss Farrington is teaching school out by Ft. Cobb this year.

By some of the members of the High School taking up debating work they have created an interest which has lead to an organization of this kind. The club met and organized Wednesday evening. Thursday evening they elected their officers. The following officers were elected. President, Evert Bishop, Vice President, Robert Fowler, Secretary, James Armstrong, Treasure, Wayne Fluharty.

Three members of this club will meet the McCloud team in the A. H. S. Auditorium Saturday March 14. Anadarko will take the same side of the question they had with the Duncan team.

The program that was to be given March 6 by the High School will be postponed till Friday 13.

Clifford Lyon of the Sophomore class has been quite sick with pneumonia but is getting along nicely.
